Description

Raleigh 3-Speed Bicycle. Only one speed works though, as gear shift is broken. Brown in color. Bell was stolen from left handle bar. Rims are bent. Tires are deflated or flat, I'm not sure which exactly, maybe both. Metal is a bit corroded, lots of paint loss. But it still rides (once tires are remedied, that is). A good bike to have in New York City, since the chances of it getting stolen are minimal. And it is a bit slow, so if it does get napped, one can probably catch up to the perpetrator on foot. Acquired from AMW, 2001.

Description

Three "Lightboxes" covered with Stretched Canvas. Canvases are very dusty and already half painted on. Each wooden box has a white acrylic plexi top (thus, a lightbox if one were to cover the bottom with a piece of wood and put some fluorescent lights inside - which I've done before). In their current state, they are basically stretched canvas over poplar (I think) measuring 30 x 30 x 5-1/2 inches. Canvases are a little stiff due to cold weather.

Second is a small sauce pan (6-7/8" diameter x 2-7/8" tall) with a black plastic handle, a heavy metal material (but not cast iron), and the third is a matching large pot (10-1/4" diameter x 3-5/8" tall), both with pale blue lids. All three items are used and in okay condition, none have sealants inside so there is a lot of wear on the inside and out.
